IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Information provided by the University, such as in presentations, University brochures and on the University website, is accurate at the time of first disclosure. However, courses, University services and content of publications remain subject to change. Changes may be necessary to comply with the requirements of accrediting bodies or to keep courses contemporary through updating practices or areas of study. Circumstances may arise outside the reasonable control of the University leading to required changes. Such circumstances include industrial action, unexpected student numbers, significant staff illness (where a course is reliant upon a person's expertise), unexpected lack of funding, severe weather, fire, civil disorder, political unrest, government restrictions and serious concern with regard to the transmission of serious illness making a course unsafe to deliver. After a student has taken up a place with the University, the University will look to give early notification of any changes and try to minimise their impact, offering suitable alternative arrangements or forms of compensation where it believes there is a fair case to do so. The latest key information on courses, entry requirements and fees can be found at courses.leeds.ac.uk. Please check this website before making any decisions.

Welcome

Living in University accommodation is a great way to experience student life, make new friends and feel part of our student community. That's why we hold Viewing Day, to help you decide which accommodation is right for you.

Find out more about our residences at accommodation.leeds.ac.uk/residences

Make the most of your day

In this guide you'll find everything you need to know about Viewing Day, including a quick guide to accommodation at Leeds, information about how to travel between residences during your visit, and a campus map.

Our team of friendly student ambassadors in red t-shirts are here to help. They're all current students so they can talk to you about living in halls, life at Leeds and show you where to go. Staff from the accommodation team in purple t-shirts will also be available on the day to answer any questions you might have.

Residences are open to view from 9.30–17.00.

The majority of our accommodation is located off campus, however all of our residences are within two miles of the University.

Visiting campus facilities

On the day you can also take a tour of our indoor sports facility, The Edge [101] and our Leeds University Union [32]. You don't need to book, just drop in.

Tours run at regular intervals from 11.00–15.30 and last approximately 15–30 minutes. Tours start and finish just inside each building – just look out for our helpful staff and student ambassadors on the day.

Refreshments are available from the Parkinson Court Café [60] between 8.30–15.00. The Refectory [29] is serving food between 10.00–14.00. Food outlets, bars and shops are open from 10.00 in Leeds University Union [32]. Off campus, complimentary tea and coffee will be available at Clarence Dock Village and Devonshire Hall.

Accommodation talks

We will be running accommodation talks throughout the day to provide you with more information on applying for University accommodation and how allocation works.

These will take place at 9.00, 10.00, 11.00 and 13.00 in the Michael Sadler Building [78]. You don't need to book in advance but we do recommend arriving at the venue at least 10 minutes before the talk starts.

Car parking

We recommend traveling to Viewing Day by public transport as parking on campus is limited and available on a first come, first served basis. Find out more about traveling to Leeds on our website. accommodation.leeds.ac.uk/viewingday

Questions and information

If you need any help on the day, visit the information stand located close to the Parkinson Building [60] at the University main entrance. Staff will also be on hand at each of the residences and at various locations en route to answer any of your questions.

The prices listed in this guide are for the current 2022/23 academic year. It is expected that prices for September 2023 entry will be available from April. Price ranges reflect differences in room size or facilities. These things determine exactly what you pay in the price band.

The price you see in your contract is the price you'll pay. For the latest information on accommodation costs, visit accommodation.leeds.ac.uk

Map of our residences

Travel

With a range of travel options available on Viewing Day, each residence profile details the recommended method of transport.

Shuttle bus

Free shuttle buses will be operating between the residences, departing regularly from outside the University main entrance in front of the Parkinson Building [60].

You don't need to book this service but there are likely to be queues, particularly around lunchtime, so you may want to consider taking a public bus service. Routes for the shuttle buses can be found on page 9.

By public bus

Most of our students make use of the great public transport system in Leeds, and you may like to do the same. The main bus stops are just outside the University main entrance in front of the Parkinson Building [60] – the buses stop on the main roads close to the residences. Walking instructions from the bus stops are also detailed on each residence profile.

On foot

Ellerslie Global Residence [22], Henry Price Residences [44], Charles Morris Hall [86] and Lyddon Hall [30] are all on campus and can be easily reached on foot. Many of our other residences including North Hill Court, James Baillie Park, Devonshire Hall, Leodis, Montague Burton, Central Village, CitySide, Carlton Hill, White Rose View and Sentinel Towers are all within walking distance of campus.

Walking instructions are provided on all relevant residence profile pages. The suggested walking routes for the on-campus residences are shown on the campus map on pages 22–23.

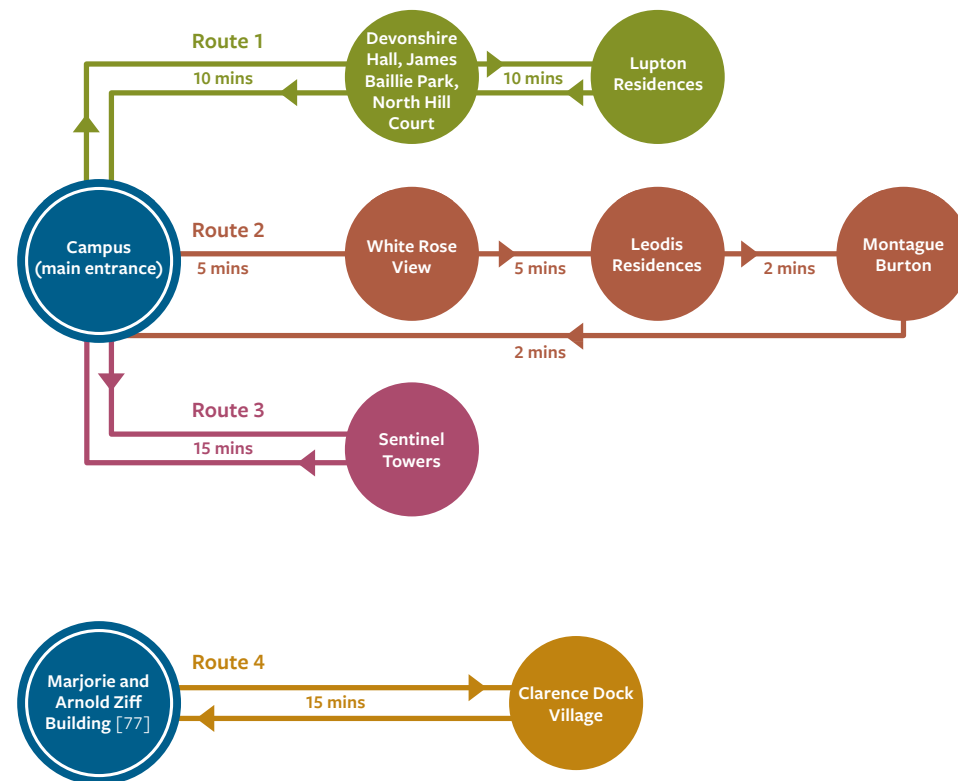

By car

You can drive to the accommodation yourself; postcodes are shown on each residence profile. There is also a location map of the residences on pages 6–7. Traffic is likely to be heavy in and around Leeds so you should allow plenty of time for your journey between residences. Parking is available at some residences but will be limited as students will still be around. You may want to consider using public buses, shuttle buses or walking where appropriate.

Shuttle buses and route planner

Shuttle buses are a 'hop on, hop off' service rather than a coach tour. All routes depart approximately every 15 minutes. Simply turn up and get on the appropriate one.

The buses stop on the main road as close as possible to each residence, but there might be a short walk to get to the residence itself. Walking instructions from the bus stops are detailed on each residence profile.

Each residence has a student-led Residence Life Social Committee that organises social events and activities during term time. In the past our social committees have organised quiz and film nights, cultural celebrations and baking competitions.

Help and support

Every hall also has a Residence Life Warden, and in most cases a team of Residence Life Assistants, to provide you with advice and guidance throughout your stay in halls whenever you need it. There's always someone on call to help with any urgent problems outside normal office hours.

FAQs

How and when do I apply for accommodation?

You can apply for accommodation via our website once you've accepted Leeds as your firm choice through UCAS. We guarantee an offer of single University accommodation for your first year (and for all years for international undergraduates), as long as you apply by 1 July 2023.

Will I get my first choice residence?

Like other popular universities in the UK, we can't guarantee everyone their preferred choice. If you don't get your preferred choice, we'll make every effort to find you somewhere suitable based on your requirements and preferences. We have a fantastic range of accommodation and we're sure you'll have a great experience wherever you live.

We don't operate a first come, first served policy so you've got time to make your choice. When you apply, you should tell us what's important to you about your accommodation preferences and if you have any special requests, as we'll try to take these into consideration.

I'm applying for a Healthcare course, which accommodation should I apply for?

If you're a healthcare student, you should apply for Lupton, Devonshire Hall (self-catered), Sentinel Towers and Clarence Dock Village. We allocate all Healthcare students together due to high course contact hours and work placements. If you need additional accommodation at the end of your contract, you can apply for this during semester two.

Are your residences mixed or single gender?

We try to find the best mix of students for each residence. All of our residences are mixed gender, but you can request to live in a men-only or women-only flat. If you have any specific circumstances you'd like to discuss, please get in touch with us.

Do I need to tell you about my disability or medical condition?

Whatever your disability or long-term health condition, get in touch with us before you apply. We'll work with you to find accommodation that suits your requirements wherever possible. There is a section on the accommodation application form which allows you to include such information. If you prefer you can also discuss your requirements by emailing accom@leeds.ac.uk. The more information we know in advance, the better we can assist you.

Do you have accommodation for smokers?

All of our residences operate a no smoking policy.

Do you have designated quiet residences?

We don't have any designated quiet residences, but we do have rooms in quiet flats which you can request when you apply. We ask students in all our residences to respect other residents and the local community by keeping noise to a minimum. Designated quiet hours across all of our residences are from 11pm–8am every day, and this is extended during the exam period in January and May.

Will you consider any other requirements when you allocate accommodation?

If you have any other requirements that you would like us to consider then please get in touch to discuss them with us.

When will I hear which residence I've been allocated?

Once we've allocated your accommodation we'll send you an email with a link to our accommodation portal. You'll then be able to review your accommodation offer, accept your contract, pay your deposit, set up your instalment plan and access our online induction.

Make sure you read your contract carefully, including the terms and conditions, before you accept it.

If you have an unconditional offer at Leeds, we'll confirm your accommodation between 16 July and 1 August, otherwise we'll confirm your accommodation between 17 August and 10 September.

You'll be required to accept the contract and pay the £200 deposit within four days of receiving the email, so if you're not going to be around, make sure you or someone else can access your emails and the accommodation portal.

How do I pay?

There are no hidden extras, so the price you see on your contract is what you pay. Your rent can be paid in either one, three or eight instalments – the first instalment isn't due until November, so you don't have any rent to pay until after you move in.

What if I want to stay in University accommodation after my first year?

We usually have a number of places available for returning students. More information is available on our website, including how and when to apply.
